3. Schemes should be implemented by the concerned DCs / ADCs as per guidelines issued to this effect vide letter of even number dated 19.10.2008. Further, schemes including work schemes may preferably so selected that their administrative approval and expenditure sanction could be accorded by concerned DC/ADC within their delegation of financial power. Further, "Non-Duplicity Certificate" may be attached with Sanction Order of each scheme. The ADC, Singchung, ADC, Sagalee and ADC, Tuting may implement the schemes and submit bills to the concerned Deputy Commissioners for making payment.

4. Further, in view of increased work-load of the District Planning Officers for monitoring of projects under PM's package, NEC, NLCPR and other CSS programmes besides their normal duties, the Government as a special case has decided to relax the guidelines of Untied Fund for the current financial year and allow the Deputy Commissioners to purchase one no. Gypsy or Bolero for District Planning Units for smooth and proper supervising and monitoring of schemes / projects implemented by the State Govt. out of the Untied Fund allotted to them. In case the Deputy Commissioners consider purchasing new vehicles for the DPOs from the Untied Fund, the old vehicles placed at the disposal of concerned DPOs should be condemned (as per the guidelines of condemnation) and auctioned by the Deputy Commissioners observing all codal formalities. The auctioned amount should be deposited in Treasury and a copy of the Treasury Challan may be forwarded to the Planning Department for record. The Planning Department will continue to provide necessary fund for upkeep/maintenance and POL items for one vehicle as usual. Concerned Deputy Commissioner may intimate the decision taken in this regard to Planning Department on or before 19th January' 2009 for further necessary action.

5. This issues with the approval of the competent authority.

Yours faithfully,

(P.S.Lokhande), IAS
Secretary (Planning)
